

Fort Ticonderoga Family Activities Schedule
July 5 – August 27, 2010

Day	10:30-11:30	12:00-1:00	1:45-3:30	3:45-4:45
Monday	“Bag It!” Learn basic sewing techniques and take home a small bag.	“Tri-Corns” Make your own paper tri-corn hat to take home.	“Bundle Up!” Try on some 18th-century clothes like those worn by children in the 1770s.	“Let’s Play!” Try your hand at some 18th-century games.
Tuesday	“Traveling in Style!” Put together your own paper traveling trunk.	“Lesson of the Day” Make your own horn book, a “high-tech” learning tool of the 18th century.	“Bundle Up!” Try on some 18th-century clothes like those worn by children in the 1770s.	“Let’s Play!” Try your hand at some 18th-century games.
Wednesday	“Dear Diary” Create a soldier’s diary.	“Tri-Corns” Make your own paper tri-corn hat to take home.	“Bundle Up!” Try on some 18th-century clothes like those worn by children in the 1770s.	“Let’s Play!” Try your hand at some 18th-century games.
Thursday	“Sailing on the Lake” Build a miniature paper Bateau.	“Dear Diary” Create a soldier’s diary.	“Bundle Up!” Try on some 18th-century clothes like those worn by children in the 1770s.	“Let’s Play!” Try your hand at some 18th-century games.
Friday	“Keep Your Head Covered” Make a woman’s cap out of paper.	“Keep Your Powder Dry!” Design your own powder horn.	“Bundle Up!” Try on some 18th-century clothes like those worn by children in the 1770s.	“Let’s Play!” Try your hand at some 18th-century games.
Saturday	“Keep Your Powder Dry!” Design your own powder horn.	“Lesson of the Day” Make your own horn book, a “high-tech” learning tool of the 18th century.	“Bundle Up!” Try on some 18th-century clothes like those worn by children in the 1770s.	“Let’s Play!” Try your hand at some 18th-century games.
Sunday	“Hands-on Haversacks” Make your own mini-haversack to take home.	“Sailing on the Lake” Build a miniature paper Bateau.	“Bundle Up!” Try on some 18th-century clothes like those worn by children in the 1770s.	“Let’s Play!” Try your hand at some 18th-century games.